

Online Training Program on

“Strategies for Identifying and Maintaining Common Pool Resources through Panchayati Raj Institutions”

(September 07 – 11, 2020)

Organised By

Centre for Agrarian Studies and Centre for Panchayati Raj, Decentralised Planning and Social Service

National Institute of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj

Course Content

- Conceptual Understanding on Common Pool Resources and their Role in Improving the Rural Livelihoods
- Maintaining Common Pool Resources (CPRs) for Rural Livelihoods' - Opportunities & Challenges
- Participatory Planning, Managing and Conserving CPRs
- Role of Institutions in Governing CPRs
- Livelihood Programmes and Schemes for CPRs

Last date for registration: 1st September 2020

E-certificate: Based on Learning Assessment

Platform: link will be shared with registered participants

Time: 10:00 AM to 01:00 PM (IST)

Target Audience

Officials and Elected Representatives from State and District Agriculture, Rural Development and Panchayati Raj Functionaries, and NGOs.

No Course Fee

Click Registration Link

Programme Coordinators

Dr Nithya V.G, Asst Professor (CAS) - 9821804082

Dr C. Kathiresan, Assoc. Professor & Head (CPRDP&S) - 9490191088

