About the Institute

National Institute of Rural Development & Panchayati Raj (NIRDPR), Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, celebrated its Golden Jubilee in the year 2008, is a premier national centre of excellence of rural development. Recognized internationally as UN-ESCAP Centre of Excellence in HRD, it builds capacities of rural development functionaries, elected representatives, academicians and young students through inter-related activities of training, research, teaching and consultancy to enable them to analyze and propose solutions to problems in planning and implementation of the programmes for rural development and disseminate information through periodicals, reports and publications. The Institute is located in the serene rural surroundings of Rajendranagar about 15 km from the historic city of Hyderabad.

The vision of NIRD & PR is to focus on the policies and programmes that benefit the rural poor, strive to energize the democratic decentralization processes, improve the operation and efficiency of rural development personnel, promote transfer of technology through its social laboratories, technology park and create environmental awareness.

As a “think-tank” for the Ministry of Rural Development, NIRD & PR, while acting as a repository of knowledge on rural development, also assist the Ministry in policy formulation and choice of options in rural development to usher in the change.

The Institute’s services are also available at North East Regional Centre (NERC) at Guwahati and to different ministries/development departments of the Central and State Governments, Banking institutions, public and private sector organizations, civil societies, Panchayati Raj Institutions and other national and international agencies connected with rural development.

Centre for Post Graduate Studies and Distance Education of NIRD & PR

Centre for Post Graduate Studies and Distance Education (CPGS & DE) was established in 2008 in view of rapid changes in communication and technology and increasing need of massive trained manpower in rural development. The Centre focuses on academic oriented programmes for capacity building of development personnels of government organisations, elected representatives and educated youth to function as change managers.

About the Programme

NIRD&PR under the “Transforming India” initiatives has launched a significant project “Transforming India through strengthening Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) by continuous Training and e-enablement”. The one year Diploma Programme on “Panchayati Raj Governance and Rural Development” is part of this project and will be offered in coordination with the Centre for Panchayati Raj, NIRD&PR. This Programme offers an opportunity to the elected representatives, Panchayat functionaries and others, to acquire additional knowledge and skills on rural local governance. The programme is being offered through distance mode in collaboration with University of Hyderabad (UoH), Hyderabad.

Programme Objectives

1. Bridge the capacity building gaps of PR functionaries in a time bound manner.
2. Offer opportunity for any individual to engage with the society and pay back through the medium of Panchayati Raj (PR).
3. Enable the Elected Representatives (ERs) to acquire additional skills, to enhance their own repute and political career.
4. Provide opportunity for the former ERs to acquire a diploma based on their experience.
5. Create a competitive ecosystem in the ERs and PR officials for better performance.
6. Create certified ERs who can act as Master Resource Persons.
